- To make a difference in a child's life.

WHAT TYPE OF YOUTH DOES THE PROGRAM SERVE?

- Youth ages 9-17.
- Young people experiencing challenges with low self-esteem, poor academic progress, peer difficulties, family conflict and/or poor decision making, for example.
- Youth from a wide range of ethnic diversity and socio-economic backgrounds.

HOW ARE YOUNG PEOPLE REFERRED TO THE PROGRAM?

- From school counselors, teachers and principals.
- From community agencies such as social welfare and counseling agencies.
- From YMCA Programs
- From the YMCA community, friends, family, and/or self-referrals.
- All referrals to Reach & Rise go through an application process and an initial telephone and/or face-to-face screening with the Program Director. This process helps determine whether or not each child is appropriate for the program. Those children assessed to have mental health problems not appropriate for our program will be referred elsewhere. The types of issues not likely to be handled by our mentors include: acute depression, homicidal or suicidal behavior, drug/alcohol dependence, and violent behavior.

- Mentors commit to spending 1-3 hours once a week with a youth for one year.

HOW ARE MENTORS SUPPORTED ONCE THEY'VE COMPLETED THE TRAINING AND HAVE BEEN "MATCHED" WITH A YOUTH?

- Reach & Rise is committed to on-going training and support for all volunteer mentors, and the Program Director is actively involved in goal-setting and on-going planning with all mentors for their mentees.
- Mentors are invited and encouraged to attend ongoing mentor support group meetings, which are led by the Program Director. This continuing support is considered vital because it provides structure for the mentors as well as on-going training and development of mentoring skills. Individual telephone support is provided on a monthly or as needed basis. The Program Director can serve as a liaison between the mentor and the mentee's family to work through any issues that may arise in the mentoring relationship.
