YMCA CAMP HIGH HARBOUR AT LAKE BURTON

At YMCA Camp High Harbour at Lake Burton, we believe every group is unique. That's why we work with you to customize your retreat or rental experience—from tailored schedules and specialized programming to meal service and activity options—ensuring your time with us is exactly what your group needs. Reach out to us to book your group consultation!

Youth Serving Organizations

We believe in the power of connection, growth, and unforgettable experiences. Our retreat offerings for youth-serving organizations provide the perfect setting to inspire, unite, and equip the next generation of leaders. Surrounded by the beauty of Lake Burton, your group will engage in meaningful programming, adventurous activities, and moments of reflection designed to build confidence and strengthen bonds. Together, we create the kind of experiences that last a lifetime.

Facilities

YMCA Camp High Harbour at Lake Burton is built to host groups of over 250, with climate-controlled living spaces, bathrooms in every cabin, and multiple large meeting spaces equipped with full AV support. Whether you're gathering for a presentation, breakout sessions, or downtime together, our facilities ensure your group stays comfortable, connected, and focused—no matter the season.

Large Group Gatherings

Looking for the perfect place to bring your whole community together? Our facilities are built for large group retreats, offering plenty of space, comfortable lodging, and a variety of activities—all surrounded by the natural beauty of Lake Burton. Whether you're hosting a family reunion, church retreat, school event, or organizational gathering, we make it easy to connect, recharge, and create lasting memories. With customizable schedules, meal service, and experienced staff support, your group can focus on what matters most: time together.

Program Offerings

No two groups are the same—and neither are our retreats. We work with you to create a retreat experience that fits your unique goals. From high-energy activities like high ropes and waterfront adventures to reflective moments like guided team-building, leadership workshops, and campfire gatherings, our team will help you build a schedule that balances growth, connection, and fun. Whether you're looking to strengthen your team, deepen relationships, or just enjoy time in nature, we're here to design a retreat that works for you.

Corporate Retreats

Step out of the office and into purpose. We create corporate retreat experiences that build stronger teams through connection, leadership, and service. Grounded in our core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility, your group will collaborate, recharge, and give back—all in a stunning lakeside setting. Let's make work more meaningful.
